AND

COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, which is due immediately. Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $2,466,352 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as set forth on the list attached to this judgment. If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment. A partial payment of $150,000 shall be paid immediately. The balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $500 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as to the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants, Mamdouh Bahna (Docket No. CR-CR05-00982ABC), Huynhoa Bui (Docket No. 05-00717), Jon English (Docket No. 05-00758), Carlos Farias (Docket No. 05-00759), and Danny Valle (Docket No. 05-00760) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g)

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

USA vs. William Hampton, M.D.Docket No.: CR 05-982 ABC

All fines waived, as it is found that defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, William Hampton, is hereby committed on Count 17 of the 17-Count Redacted Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 120 months

Upon release from imprisonment the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years under the following terms and conditions.

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318.

2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

3. Defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, act as a consultant for, own or control, in whole or in part, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in any medical service business or any business that involves medical billing or medical marketing, without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any medical service business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.

4. Defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires medical licensing and/or certification by any local, state or federal medical licensing agency without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

5. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse

Defendant advised of right to appeal. The Court recommends the defendant be incarcerated, consistent with security and housing concerns within the Bureau of Prisons, in Southern California.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, September 08, 2008. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
